

About DBI

Description

Dasher Basketball, Inc. (DBI) is a non-profit organization that was formed under Chapter 181 of Wisconsin Statutes on October 21, 2004 and is also recognized as a 501(c)(3) entity. DBI is dedicated to developing the life skills and athletic ability of young girls through learning about and playing the game of basketball. DBI is specifically targeted at girls who have the desire and talent to potentially play basketball at the high school level. DBI rents all of the athletic facilities used, and DBI is open to all who are interested in participating – regardless of what high school they attend or intend to attend.
